Dorothy Segovia

I was born a hum - ble wo - man girl.
In a country broken by two ra - ging storms,
A man was carried to our wo - man place.

I was raised in the U - ni - ted States.
in a gentle clearing, though the path is rough.
A bullet ly - ing, wait - ing in his head.

I was born _____ with a stea - dy heart
Nothing but a group of poor, poor wo - men there,
We could have let him die an ex-cetra fight - ing man, and a sim - ple twist of faith.

and I swear this is e - nough.
but we fought for his healing instead.

And I was called to be a wit - ness
Lord knows I'm not a sa - vior,
Did you know this world's a cir - cle,

to a coun - try with no peace.
and some - times I just can't see.
that com - man - der came a - round.
